

20260417 On Notice to Kid Rock from THE Rock

Earlier in this process of exposing the Trump administration for illegal spy-craft and threats against American citizens, my wife and I had the following real-life experience:

Back while we were still supporters of Donald Trump, and while we were playing a game of volleyball in our backyard in the heart of San Antonio, Texas, a military aircraft from one of the nearby military bases buzzed our own home so closely that it blew the volley ball off course during our game play.

At the time, we thought it was funny, and laughed it off - like a stunt from Top Gun, very similar to a playful salute like the one that Kid Rock experienced in the following photo.

But, as time has gone on, it has become very clear to me, personally, that this is not a playful salute, at all - this is a warning from the military: YOU ARE BEING WATCHED, ILLEGALLY SURVEILLED, AND ARE SUBJECT TO THEIR ILLEGAL ACTIONS WITHOUT ANY CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OR THEIR MINIONS.

(Powerful engines are signaling around my home right now to embrace and support this message)
